- 1.30 "Works" means all works described in the Purchase Order (including, without limitation, the provision and /or instalment of any plant, equipment and materials) used in such Works) necessary to fulfil the Contract; and
- 1.31 "working day" means a day (other than a Saturday or Sunday) on which banks are open for domestic business in the City of London.
- 2. BASIS OF CONTRACT
- 2.1 The Purchase Order constitutes an offer to carry out the Works and the Services subject to the terms of the Contract.
- 2.2 The Purchase Order shall be deemed to be accepted by the Contractor on the earlier of:
- 2.2.1 the Contractor issuing written acceptance of the Purchase Order or the Contractor signing and returning a copy of the Purchase Order; or
- 2.2.2 any act by the Contractor consistent with fulfilling the Purchase Order (including but not limited to commencing performance of the Works and the Services);
- at which point and on which date the Contract shall come into existence.
- 2.3 No terms or conditions endorsed upon, delivered with or contained in the Contractor's quotation, acknowledgement or acceptance of Purchase Order, specification or any similar document given by the Contractor to the Client will form part of the Contract (unless they are expressly agreed by the Client and set out in the Special Conditions) and the Contractor expressly waives any right which it otherwise might have to rely on such terms or conditions.
- 2.4 In the event of inconsistency between the documents comprising the Contract, they shall have precedence in the following order:
- 2.4.1 the Purchase Order;
- 2.4.2 the Special Conditions;
- 2.4.3 the Conditions;
- 2.4.4 the Specification; and
- 2.4.5 the Contractor's Information.
- 2.5 Where there is any discrepancy or divergence between the Specification and the Contractor's Information (including a discrepancy that results from a Variation under condition 3), the Contractor shall notify the Client of the discrepancy or divergence and of its proposed amendments to correct or remove it (as the case may be). Subject always to compliance with the Statutory Requirements, the Client shall decide between the discrepant or divergent items or otherwise may accept the Contractor's proposed amendments or decide how the discrepancy or divergence shall be dealt with. The Contractor shall be obliged to comply with the decision or acceptance by the Client without any adjustment of the Price or any extension of the Completion Date and without affecting in any way or to any degree the responsibility of the Contractor under the Contract.
- 3. VARIATIONS
- 3.1 The Contractor shall carry out any Variations. No Variation shall vitiate the Contract. Subject to condition 3.8, Variations shall only be instructed and confirmed by way of a written document entitled 'Variation Order' in the form attached to the Purchase Order and signed by the Client Representative.
- 3.2 Subject to condition 3.8, prior to instructing or authorising any proposed Variations, the Client may require the Contractor to submit in writing, within five (5) working days of receipt of the Client's request, a notice setting out:
- 3.2.1 the effect (if any) on the Price including any estimates regarding additional works and services required;
- 3.2.2 the effect on the Completion Date and/or Programme (if any);
- 3.2.3 the effect on the Contractor's performance under the Contract (if any); and
- 3.2.4 a detailed schedule for the execution of the proposed Variation, showing the resources to be employed.
- 3.3 Each Variation shall be valued in accordance with the rates and prices set out in the Purchase Order. To the extent that the rates and prices in the Purchase Order are not applicable to the Variation then commensurate rates based on those in the Purchase Order shall be agreed between the Client and the Contractor or failing agreement the Client shall determine fair and reasonable prices. Any such increase or decrease ascertained by the Client shall remain fixed and final and shall not be subject to further adjustment.
- 3.4 Upon the Client's review of any notice received in accordance with condition 3.2 (or if such notice is not received prior to the expiry of the five (5) period referred to in condition 3.2) the Client shall either:
- 3.4.1 issue to the Contractor a Variation in accordance with condition 3.1; or
- 3.4.2 decline to proceed to issue a Variation.
- 3.5 If the Contractor considers that an occurrence has taken place for which it is entitled to receive a Variation, the Contractor, before proceeding with any work affected by such occurrence, shall within three (3) working days of such occurrence request in writing that the Client issue a Variation. Any such request, shall include details of the occurrence including any relevant dates and the condition or conditions of the Contract under which the Contractor considers itself to be entitled to a Variation and shall include all the information required to be given in the notice specified in condition 3.2.
- 3.6 If the Contractor fails to submit requests for Variations in accordance with condition 3.5 when it considers or should reasonably have considered that an occurrence has taken place for which it is entitled to receive a Variation and/or fails to provide the notice in accordance with condition 3.5, the Contractor shall, forfeit any and all rights to receive such Variations and/or rights concerning adjustment to the Price and/or the Programme and Completion Date.
- 3.7 The Contractor shall not proceed with or implement any Variation until it has received written confirmation from the Client in accordance with this condition which shall be a condition precedent to the Contractor's entitlement to receive any addition to the Price and/or extension to the Date for Completion.
- 3.8 If the Client decides that for reasons of urgency a Variation must be carried out immediately, then the Client may instruct the Contractor accordingly and the Contractor shall forthwith carry out such Variation. Within three (3) working days of the issue of any such Variation, the Contractor shall advise the Client in writing of any changes which he proposes to the Price and/or the Completion Date of the Works and the Services or any other - provisions including the Contractor's obligations under the Contract arising out of such Variation. The Client within ten (10) working days of the receipt of such proposal shall issue a further Variation confirming changes as the parties may have agreed. In default of agreement the Client shall issue such further variations as it may decide is reasonable.

- 3.9 The Contractor shall not vary the Works except under this condition 3 or as directed in writing by the Client or as may be agreed with the Client in writing.
- 4. CONTRACTOR'S GENERAL OBLIGATIONS
- 4.1 The Contractor shall, subject to the provisions of the Contract, make regular and diligent progress to carry out and complete the Works and the Services by the Completion Date.
- 4.2 The Works shall be fit for their intended purpose (whether expressly stated or implied) and free from any defects in materials, workmanship or design and compliant in all respects with the relevant planning permission and the Specification.
- 4.3 Where the Purchase Order specifies, the Contractor will be fully responsible in all respects for the design of the Works including any designs proposed by or on behalf of the Client (whether or not that design was undertaken on or before the Effective Date) and/or any design work undertaken by a sub-contractor and/or a sub-consultant of the Contractor.
- 4.4 The Contractor shall not cause or contribute to any breach by the Client of the Main Contract or any other contract the Client may enter into with a third party the material terms of which (save for commercially sensitive information) have been disclosed to the Contractor. The Contractor shall provide such assistance as the Client reasonably requires to perform and comply with its obligations under the Main Contract and such other contract.
- 4.5 The Contractor shall take full responsibility for the adequacy, stability and safety of all its operations and methods necessary for the satisfactory and safe performance of the Works and the Services, and those of the Contractor's Persons and shall comply with any provisions incorporated in the Contract in relation to HS+E.
- 4.6 In the absence of any such specific provisions, the Contractor shall:
- 4.6.1 actively pursue the highest appropriate professional standards of HS +E;
- 4.6.2 within five (5) working days of the Effective Date of the Contract, provide for approval by the Client the Contractor's own HS +E policies and procedures, where necessary preparing such policies and procedures to reflect all aspects of the Works and the Services;
- 4.6.3 comply with any HS+E standards, policies and procedures in place at any location where Works and the Services are being carried out; and
- 4.6.4 carry out documented risk and hazard assessments and assist the Client in carrying out any such assessments that are required for the safe performance of the Works and the Services.
- 4.7 If stated in the Purchase Order as being applicable, on or before the Effective Date (or such other date as the Client may require) the Contractor shall procure the execution and delivery of the following security documents;
- 4.7.1 a performance bond for the value specified in the Purchase Order, in the form appended to the Purchase Order;
- 4.7.2 a parent company guarantee, in the form appended to the Purchase Order;
- 4.7.3 advanced payment bond, in the form appended to the Purchase Order;
- and the provision of these documents shall be a condition precedent to the Contractor's right to receive payment under the Contract and the Client may withhold any monies due and owing to the Contractor until such time as these documents have been provided to the satisfaction of the Client.
- 4.8 If required under the Purchase Order, within five (5) working days or a written request to do so, the Contractor shall procure the execution and delivery of the Collateral Warranties to the Client in favour of any person specified in the Purchase Order as the Client shall advise. The Contractor acknowledges and agrees that the provision of the Collateral Warranties shall be a condition precedent to the Contractor's right to receive payment under the Contract and that the Client may withhold any and all monies otherwise due and owing to the Supplier until such time as the Collateral Warranties are provided.
- 4.9 The Contractor shall prevent any nuisance (including any noisy working operations), inconvenience, disturbance or other interference with the rights of any third parties (including but not limited to neighbour and members of the public) or any statutory undertaker, of which the Contractor is or ought reasonably to have been aware, arising out of the carrying out of the Works and the Services. The Contractor shall assist the Client in defending any action or proceedings in relation to any such nuisance, disturbance or interference. The Contractor shall be responsible for and shall indemnify the Client from and against any and all expenses, liabilities, losses, claims and proceedings resulting from any failure or default by the Contractor in performing its obligations under this condition.
- 4.10 The Contractor shall ensure that there is no trespass by the Contractor on or over any adjoining or neighbouring property arising out of the Works and the Services and shall take all reasonable safety and other measures to prevent damage or injury to any persons including the occupiers of adjoining or neighbouring property and members of the public. If carrying out the Works and the Services or any obligation pursuant to this Contract would otherwise be an act of trespass, the Contractor shall, at no cost to the Client, obtain the prior written agreement of the owners or occupiers of any adjoining or neighbouring property to that act.
- 4.11 In undertaking the Works and the Services, the Contractor is deemed to have inspected and examined the Site and its surroundings and to have sufficient knowledge of the nature and condition of the Site, the condition and/or structural stability and integrity of all buildings, structures on the Site and the physical ground conditions affecting the Site (including the existence of any contamination, pollution, structures, pipes and cables and service installations) and accepts that the risk of encountering any such conditions and/or associated matters during the course of the Works and the Services shall be borne by the Contractor. To the extent that the Client has provided the Contractor with any survey, investigation report or other document in relation to the Works and the Services, the Contractor shall not be entitled to rely upon any such document and acknowledges that the Client makes no representation nor warranty as to the accuracy or sufficiency of the same and shall rely solely upon its own inspection of the Site, ground conditions, structures, buildings and surrounding areas. The Contractor shall not be entitled to claim any extension of time and/or for any loss and expense in respect of the nature and condition of the Site, physical ground conditions and/or condition, stability and/or integrity (or otherwise) of any buildings and/or structures at or around the Site.

5. CONTRACTOR WARRANTIES

- 5.1 The Contractor warrants and represents to the Client that:
- 5.1.1 it will carry out and complete the Works in a good and workmanlike manner using Best Industry Practice and suitable good quality materials;
  - 5.1.2 it will not specify or use anything in the Works which, at the time of specification or use is Deleterious;
  - 5.1.3 when complete the Works will be fit for their intended purpose (whether expressly stated or implied) and be capable of reaching any performance standard or criteria specified in the Contract;
  - 5.1.4 the Contractor is fully experienced, qualified, financed and organised to perform the Contract and that the Works and the Services will be performed by appropriately trained and qualified personnel in accordance with Best Industry Practice; and
  - 5.1.5 the Contractor will comply with all Statutory Requirements and regulations relating to the Works and the Services.

- 5.2 In carrying out the Services the Contractor warrants and represents to the Client that: it will carry out and complete the Services using all the professional skill, care and diligence to be reasonably expected from a skilled and experienced contractor engaged in the provision of services similar in scope, scale, complexity and cost to the Services.

6. PROGRAMME

- 6.1 The Contractor shall make regular and diligent progress to ensure that the Works and the Services reach Completion by the Completion Date. In doing so the Contractor shall co-ordinate, interface, integrate and sequence the Works and the Services with the works and activities of any third party contractors working on or adjacent to the Site so as to minimise any delay, obstruction to or interference with the carrying out of the Works and the Services and the activities of such third parties. In doing so, the Contractor shall (if required but without limitation) prepare joint programmes and method statements, arrange suitable means of access to and egress from the relevant parts of the Site and provide such facilities, security and storage arrangements as may be required to facilitate the proper and expedient undertaking of the Works and the Services and the works and activities of such third party contractors.
- 6.2 In the absence of the Completion Date being specified in the Purchase Order, the Works and the Services shall be completed as soon as practicable.
- 6.3 If the Purchase Order provides for the Works and the Services to be subject to tests on Completion the Works and the Services shall not be deemed to have achieved Completion until all such tests have been performed in accordance with condition 7 and have been passed to the satisfaction of the Client.
- 6.4 In the event that the Contractor fails to achieve Completion by the date stated in the Purchase Order, the Contractor shall subject to condition 6.5 be liable to the Client for liquidated damages which shall apply for day of delay and be charged or deducted in accordance with the rates of liquidated damages specified in the Purchase Order.
- 6.5 If the Works and the Services are delayed by reason of the following:
- 6.5.1 (subject always to the Contractor's compliance with condition 6.1) any delay impediment, prevention or default by the Client or the Client Representative or other contractors appointed by the Client that prevents the Contractor performing the Works and the Services;

- 6.5.2 any Variation; and/or
- 6.5.3 a Force Majeure Event;

then the Contractor may give written notice to the Client Representative to the effect that it considers itself entitled to a reasonable extension of time for Completion of the Works and the Services.

- 6.6 Provided that any such notice under condition 6.5 (i) is given as soon as possible and in any event no later than three (3) working days of the Contractor becoming aware that the Works and the Services are likely to be delayed (ii) gives sufficient detail as to the nature and extent of the delay upon the Works and the Services and (iii) gives the likely increase to the Price and that the Contractor uses its best endeavors to prevent and mitigate any delay to the Works and the Services then Client Representative may grant the Contractor a reasonable extension of time in which to complete the Works and the Services. The Contractor acknowledges and accepts that the Contractor's compliance with the requirements in this condition shall be a condition precedent to the Contractor's entitlement to receive any extension of time for Completion of the Works and the Services.

- 6.7 Furthermore, the Contractor shall not be entitled to any extension of time where the event or cause of delay is:

- 6.7.1 in the opinion of the Client Representative consequent upon or necessitated by any negligence, omission, default, breach of contract or breach of statutory duty of the Contractor or the Contractor's Persons; and/or
- 6.7.2 concurrent with another delay the cause of which would not entitle the Contractor to an extension of time for Completion of the Works and the Services under these Conditions.

7. TESTING AND INSPECTION

- 7.1 Where applicable as stated in the Purchase Order, tests shall be carried out in the presence of the Client in accordance with the Contract.
- 7.2 If any part of the Works and the Services fail to pass the tests, such failure shall be notified by the Client to the Contractor and the Contractor shall rectify the failure. Upon rectification, the Contractor shall notify the Client in writing and shall give the Client reasonable notice of when the tests shall be repeated by the Contractor. The repeat tests shall be carried out in the presence of the Client and the Contractor. This process shall be repeated until the tests are passed to the satisfaction of the Client in accordance with the Contract.
- 7.3 Within three (3) working days after testing and any repeat testing, the Contractor shall provide to the Client one copy of a written schedule of the tests carried out and their results.

8. DEFECTS AND COMPLETION

- 8.1 If, upon testing in accordance with condition 7, or at any other time before Completion, the Client is not satisfied that the Works and the Services have been carried out in accordance with the Contract or affected by shrinkages (Defects), the Client shall as soon as reasonably practicable give to the Contractor notice in writing specifying particulars of the alleged Defects and the Contractor shall rectify the Defects.
- 8.2 If the Contractor shall fail to rectify the Defects within a reasonable time the Client may, at the Contractor's cost, take such steps as may in all the circumstances be reasonable to make good such Defects and the Client shall be entitled to charge

- the Contractor the cost of making them good. The provisions of this condition 8.2 are without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of the Client.
- 8.3 As soon as, in the opinion of the Client Representative, the Works and the Services have passed any tests in accordance with condition 7, any Defects have been rectified and the Works and the Services have been completed in accordance with the Contract, the Client Representative shall certify Completion.
- 8.4 For the avoidance of any doubt, the Contractor agrees that the Works and the Services shall not be deemed to have reached Completion and that the Client Representative shall be under no obligation to certify Completion unless and until the Practical Completion Deliverables have been provided to the Client.
- 8.5 Where the Client waives its right to have any tests completed or Defects of a minor nature rectified on or prior to Completion, the Client may, on receiving a written undertaking by the Contractor to rectify any such Defect and finish any outstanding tests and work within such time as the Client requires, authorise the Client Representative to issue a certificate confirming that the Works and the Services have reached Completion subject to such minor Defects and outstanding tests and works.
- 8.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of the Contract, the term approval, when used in the context of any approval to be given by the Client, shall have the meaning "acceptance of general principles only", and no such approval, perusal, inspection, issuing of any certificates or documents in relation to Completion or any other term of the Contract or any consent given by or on behalf of the Client, nor any inspection of or failure to inspect the Works and the Services, shall diminish or relieve the Contractor from any of his obligations or liabilities under this Contract.
- 9. DEFECTS LIABILITY PERIOD
- 9.1 The Contractor, upon receipt of a written notice from the Client, at any time during the Defects Liability Period specified in the Purchase Order, specifying any Defects, shrinkages or other faults in the Works and the Services, shall rectify them as soon as practicable (or immediately in the case of an emergency) to the satisfaction of the Client, at the Contractor's cost.
- 9.2 If the Contractor shall fail to rectify the Defects, shrinkages and faults in accordance with condition 9.1, the Client may take such steps as may in all the circumstances be reasonable to make good such Defects, shrinkages and faults and the Client shall be entitled to charge the Contractor for the cost of making them good and any resulting losses and/or deduct such costs and losses from any sums due to the Contractor. The provisions of this condition 9.2 are without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of the Client. Such action shall not relieve the Contractor of its continuing obligations under the Contract.
- 10. SITE RESPONSIBILITIES
- 10.1 The Client shall afford access to so much of the Site as is necessary for the performance of the Works and the Services, but such access may not be exclusive to the Contractor and the Contractor shall, as directed by the Client, allow others to work on the Site and afford them all reasonable facilities to do so and cooperate with them.
- 10.2 The Contractor agrees to give access to the Works and the Services to the Client and any third parties authorised by the Client at all reasonable times for purposes of inspecting the Works and the Services provided that reasonable notice has been given to the Contractor.
- 10.3 The Contractor shall be responsible for receiving and off-loading all deliveries to the Site relating to the Works and the Services.
- 10.4 The Contractor shall use all reasonable endeavours to prevent damage to any highway or bridge on the routes to the Site by any traffic of the Contractor or any sub-contractor.
- 10.5 In carrying out the Works and the Services the Contractor shall ensure that:
- 10.5.1 the Site is secured at all times so as to prevent unauthorised entry so far as is possible;
- 10.5.2 no signs or advertisements are displayed on or around the Site without the Client's consent;
- 10.5.3 the Site is kept tidy and clear of rubbish and no goods or materials are deposited or stored on or around the Site (save to the extent that they are required within a reasonable time for the carrying out of the Works and the Services);
- 10.5.4 no soil, gravel or other minerals are removed from the Site except to the extent necessary for the carrying out of the Works and the Services;
- 10.5.5 suitable arrangements are made with the relevant authorities for the supply of water, electricity and other utilities to enable the carrying out of the Works and the Services;
- 10.5.6 any buildings (whether completed or in the course of construction) on the Site are kept in good repair and condition; and
- 10.5.7 the Site is left in a clean and tidy condition, with all unused materials and plant, equipment and temporary structures having been removed.
- 11. SITE REGULATIONS
- 11.1 The Client shall have the right to require the removal of any person brought to the Site by the Contractor who:
- 11.1.1 has failed to comply with any rule(s) applying to the Site and which have been previously notified in writing to the Contractor;
- 11.1.2 has in the opinion of the Client committed an act of misconduct or been negligent or incompetent; and/or
- 11.1.3 acts in a way that is prejudicial to HS+E
- and any such person shall not be allowed to return without the permission of the Client.
- 11.2 The Contractor shall be responsible for the suitability and safety of any constructional plant or temporary works used. No constructional plant or temporary works shall be used which may be unsuitable, unsafe or liable to cause damage or injury.
- 11.3 The Contractor shall ensure safe working practices for its own employees under the provisions of the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and all other Statutory Requirements and other regulations and must pay due regard to the safety of all persons on Site in accordance with ss3-4 of the Health and Safety Act 1974 and all other Statutory Requirements and other regulations.
- 11.4 The Contractor and Contractor's Persons shall observe the hours and conditions of working unless notified otherwise.
- 12. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR
- 12.1 The Client and the Contractor agree and declare that the Contractor (which shall be deemed to include the Contractor's Persons) is an independent contractor and not an employee or partner of the Client.
- 12.2 The Contractor undertakes to pay all remuneration due (including sick pay and holiday pay) to its employees engaged in the performance of the Contract.

13. CONTRACTOR'S INDEMNITY

13.1 The Contractor shall indemnify the Client and hold the Client harmless from and in full against all liabilities, losses, claims, demands, proceedings, damages, costs and expenses (including but not limited to any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation, economic loss, loss of contract, business or opportunity and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and expenses) awarded against or incurred or paid by the Client as a result of or in connection with:

- 13.1.1 any claim brought against the Client for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's Intellectual Property Rights arising out of, or in connection with, the receipt, use or supply of the Works and the Services, to the extent that the claim is attributable to the acts and/or omissions of the Contractor and/or the Contractor's Persons;
- 13.1.2 breach of any warranty in relation to the Works and the Services or any applicable laws;
- 13.1.3 any claim made against the Client in respect of any breach or alleged breach by the Client of any Statutory Requirement arising from the Contractor's acts or omissions or those of the Contractor's Persons;
- 13.1.4 any act or omission of the Contractor or the Contractor's Persons in performing the Works and the Services, including (but not limited to) any injury, loss or damage to persons or to any property caused or contributed to by the Contractor's negligence or breach of duty (statutory or otherwise) and/or the negligence or breach of duty (statutory or otherwise) of the Contractor's Persons;
- 13.1.5 liens, claims and other encumbrances against the Works and the Services or any property belonging to or in the possession of the Client on account of debts or claims alleged to be due to the Contractor or the Contractor's Persons;
- 13.1.6 negligent performance or breach of any obligation of the Contractor in relation to the Contract;
- 13.1.7 any defect affecting the Works and the Services or any failure of the Works to be fit for their intended purpose (whether expressly stated in the Purchase Order or implied);
- 13.1.8 any and all such taxes (including, without limitation any PAYE and national insurance contributions, and any interest, fines or penalties thereon) assessed or levied against the Contractor or Contractor's Persons in the course of the Works and the Services; and 13.2 The Contractor shall fully indemnify the Client against all and any claims made by any of its employees against the Client arising out of any allegation by them that they are employees of the Client including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) any claims for unfair dismissal and/or redundancy arising out of the termination of this Contract, and shall indemnify the Client for any legal fees incurred in defending such claims on an indemnity basis.

14. INSURANCE

14.1 The Contractor shall take out and maintain (with reputable insurers lawfully carrying on business in the UK or the EU) all insurances sufficient to cover its liabilities and obligations under the Contract and which are required by applicable laws.

14.2 As required in the Purchase Order, the Contractor shall maintain the insurances below for the minimum levels of cover and on terms set out in the Purchase Order:

- 14.2.1 employer's liability insurance;
  - 14.2.2 public liability insurance;
  - 14.2.3 professional indemnity insurance; and
  - 14.2.4 products liability insurance;
- and any other insurances set out in the Purchase Order.

14.3 The Contractor shall provide the Client with certificates of such insurances evidencing cover prior to the commencement of the Works and the Services and immediately on receipt of a request from the Client.

15 LIEN AND TITLE

15.1 The Contractor shall not (now or at any time in the future) have a general lien or charge over the Services or on any Works (or materials forming part of the Works) in its possession, custody or control for any sums due at any time to the Contractor from the Client (and/or any third party owner) and accordingly shall not have any right to sell, dispose or deal with such Works (or materials forming part of the Works).

15.2 The Contractor undertakes not to create or do any act, deed or thing which would result in the creation of any lien or encumbrance over the Services or on the Works (or materials forming part of the Works) or any document relating to the Works and the Services, and any other assets or property belonging to the Client, any third party owner or its sub-contractors and will not create or do any of the same before entering into any Contract.

15.3 Title in any materials or goods provided as part of the Works and the Services shall pass to the Client on the earlier of:

- 15.3.1 delivery of those materials or goods to or adjacent to the Site; and
- 15.3.2 payment by the Client to the Contractor in respect of those materials or goods.

16 INFORMATION

The Contractor shall provide all information which is reasonably required by the Client to ensure that the Works and the Services comply with and that the Client is able to fulfil its obligations under Contract in relation to all applicable legislation and industry codes of practice.

17 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

17.1 The Contractor grants the Client a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty free, irrevocable licence to copy and use for all purposes connected with the Works and the Services including but not limited to the design, funding, marketing, reinstatement, sale, letting, repair, maintenance and extension of the Works any and all Intellectual Property Rights and all documents, products and materials developed by the Contractor and the Contractor's Persons in relation to the Works and the Services in any form or media, including without limitation drawings, maps, plans, diagrams, designs, pictures, computer programs, data, specifications and reports (including drafts). The Client shall be entitled to grant sub-licences to third parties on terms that are consistent with the Contractor's licence.

18 PRICE

18.1 The Price shall be as stated in the Purchase Order and, unless otherwise so stated, shall be:

- 18.1.1 fixed, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties;
- 18.1.2 exclusive of any applicable VAT (which shall be shown separately on all invoices as a strictly net charge); and
- 18.1.3 inclusive of all taxes other than VAT.

18.2 Save as provided for under condition 3, no increase in the Price

may be made for any reason without the Client's prior written consent (which may be given at the Client's sole discretion).

19 PAYMENT AND TERMS OF PAYMENT

- 19.1 Unless otherwise stated in the Purchase Order, the Contractor shall submit an invoice at the end of each month for all the Works and the Services supplied during that month under the Contract and not previously invoiced.
- 19.2 The Contractor's invoice shall quote the Client's Purchase Order number and shall be submitted with applicable supporting documentation. The due date for payment of the Contractor's invoice shall be the date the Client receives the Contractor's invoice together with applicable supporting documentation (Due Date).
- 19.3 The Contractor acknowledges and agrees that the Contractor's failure to ensure that an invoice with supporting documentation and quoting the Client's Purchase Order number is received by the Client on or before the end of each month may result in the Due Date being postponed by reference to the delay in the Contractor providing its invoice and supporting documentation to the Client.
- 19.4 No later than five (5) days after the Due Date the Client shall notify the Contractor of the sum that the Client considers to have been due to the Contractor at the Due Date and the basis on which that sum is calculated.
- 19.5 Unless otherwise stated in the Purchase Order, the final date for payment of the Contractor's invoice shall be twenty (20) working days from the Due Date (Final Date for Payment). Time of payment shall not be of the essence.
- 19.6 Unless the Client has served a notice under condition 19.7, it shall pay the Contractor the amount referred to in the Client's notice under condition 19.4 (or, if the Client has not served notice under condition 19.4, the sum stated in the Contractor's invoice) (Notified Sum) on or before the Final Date for Payment.
- 19.7 Not less than one (1) day before the Final Date for Payment the Client may give the Contractor notice that it intends to pay less than the Notified Sum (Pay Less Notice). Any Pay Less Notice shall specify:
- 19.7.1 the sum that the Client considers to be due on the date the notice is served; and
- 19.7.2 the basis on which that sum is calculated.
- 19.8 Where a Pay Less Notice is given in accordance with condition 19.7, the obligation to pay the notified sum in condition 19.6 applies only in respect of the sum specified in the Pay Less Notice.
- 19.9 If the Client is overdue with any payment owing under the Contract (and the Client has not served a Pay Less Notice) then the Client will be liable to pay interest on the overdue amount at the annual rate of 3% above the prevailing base rate of National Westminster Bank Plc from time to time from the date payment becomes due until full payment of the amount due together with accrued interest. The parties agree that this is a 'substantial remedy' for purposes of the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998.
- 19.10 If the Client at any time incurs costs which the Client is entitled to recover from the Contractor, the Client may invoice the Contractor for such costs provided always that the Client may deduct the amount of such costs from any amount due, or that may become due to the Contractor under the Contract or arising under any other contract or agreement between the Client and the Contractor. The Contractor shall pay the Client within twenty (20) working days of the end of month of receipt of invoice any sums outstanding after such deduction.

- 19.11 The Client shall be entitled to deduct and off-set from the Price:
- 19.11.1 any amount which is disputed by the Client, pending resolution of such dispute;
- 19.11.2 any sums owing by the Contractor to the Client under any contract; and/or
- 19.11.3 the Retention which shall be paid to the Contractor in accordance with condition 19.12.
- 19.12 Any Retention deducted by the Client from the Contractor in accordance with condition 19.11.3 shall be paid to the Contractor in accordance with the following:
- 19.12.1 half of the Retention shall be paid to the Contractor on certification of Completion by the Client's Representative under condition 8.3; and
- 19.12.2 the remaining half of the Retention shall be paid to the Contractor upon the expiry of the Defects Liability Period subject always to the Contractor's compliance with its obligations to rectify any Defects, shrinkages or other faults during that period under condition 9.1.

20 TAXES

- 20.1 The Price shall include all taxes, fees, duties and charges that may be imposed or levied in connection with the Works and the Services (excluding VAT).
- 20.2 The Contractor shall be responsible for payment of all taxes, fees and any other liabilities (including but not limited to income taxes, fees, duties, charges and national insurance contributions and other statutory payments) payable in relation to or by reference to any payments made to or other remuneration received by the Contractor under the Contract.

21 CONFIDENTIALITY

- 21.1 All information, which would be regarded confidential by a reasonable business person, supplied by either party to the other or obtained whilst attending the Client's or Contractor's premises concerning the Client or Contractor:
- 21.1.1 shall be maintained in confidence by the recipient taking the same care to do so as it would take in respect of its own confidential information and, subject to the exclusions below, shall not be published or disclosed to any other party without the prior permission in writing of the supplying party; and
- 21.1.2 shall not be used other than in connection with and for purposes of fulfilling the Contract.
- 21.2 Each party shall endeavour to advise the other as to any confidential information that is written, oral, electronic or may be observed, prior to disclosure. In the absence of indication to the contrary, all information disclosed shall be treated as confidential.
- 21.3 The Contract shall not prevent either party from disclosing confidential information that is
- 21.3.1 required to persons engaged in the performance of either party's obligations under the Contract for the performance of those obligations (including disclosure to professional advisers advising in relation to the Contract);
- 21.3.2 already or becomes generally available and in the public domain otherwise than as a result of a breach by the disclosing party of this condition;
- 21.3.3 required to enable a determination of a dispute under condition 33;
- 21.3.4 already lawfully in the possession of the disclosing party, prior to its disclosure; or

- 21.3.5 required pursuant to any statutory, legal (including any order of a court of competent jurisdiction) or Parliamentary obligation placed upon the party making the disclosure or the rules of any stock exchange or governmental or regulatory authority having the force of law or if not having the force of law, compliance with which is in accordance with the general practice of persons subject to the stock exchange or governmental or regulatory authority concerned.
- 21.4 The restrictions in this condition shall apply to all officers, employees, agents, consultants and contractors of the parties. The parties shall ensure that all such officers, employees, agents, consultants and contractors who receive the information whether in whole or in part are notified as to and agree to comply with the contents of this condition.
- 21.5 The obligation of confidentiality set out in this condition shall continue to apply for a period of ten (10) years from the date that the Contract comes into existence unless superseded by another agreement between the parties.
- 21.6 All information that is in written form along with any copies made of it shall be returned by the receiving party within ten (10) working days of receiving a written request from the supplying party for the return of such.
- 21.7 Neither party shall without the prior written consent of the other party make any announcement or disclosure of any matters discussed, negotiated or agreed between them.

22 HEALTH AND SAFETY

- 22.1 The Contractor shall at all times whilst on the Client's premises or on the Site comply with and procure that the Contractor's Persons comply with all health and safety legislation and with all security and safety regulations and rules from time to time in force on those premises or the Site as previously notified in writing to the Contractor. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the Contractor shall at all times comply with and discharge:
- 22.1.1 its duties and obligations under the CDM Regulations (including where relevant its duties and obligations as a 'designer' and 'contractor' under the CDM Regulations); and
- 22.1.2 any health, safety, environmental, drug and alcohol policies and procedures relating to the Site and/or the Works and the Services as previously notified in writing to the Contractor.

23 QUALITY ASSURANCE

- 23.1 The Client and its nominated representatives shall have the right at any time to carry out quality audits of the Contractor and the Contractor's Persons. The Contractor shall provide the required facilities and assistance to the Client and its nominated representatives with respect to execution of such audits.
- 23.2 A failure on the part of the Client to inspect the Works and the Services or test or to discover defects or failure to reject the Works and the Services shall not relieve the Contractor from any liability or obligation under the Contract.
- 23.3 The Contractor has and shall continue to have in place an established, documented and maintained quality assurance system which meets relevant industry standards applying to the Works and the Services in the territory where the Works and the Services are being delivered, manufactured, supplied or carried out.
- 23.4 The Contractor agrees that the Client may enter the Site at reasonable times during the carrying out of the Works and the Services upon reasonable notice being given to the Contractor to inspect progress of the Works and the Services and the materials used. In entering the Site the Client shall not obstruct progress of the Works and the Services and shall:

- 23.4.1 not give any instructions or make any representations directly to the Contractor; and
- 23.4.2 comply with relevant health and safety and site rules.

24 MITIGATION OF LOSS

- 24.1 The Contractor shall take all reasonable steps to mitigate any loss resulting from any breach of the Contract.
- 24.2 The Contractor shall, upon the request of the Client, take all reasonable steps to mitigate costs to the Client which may be the result of delays to commencement or completion of the Contract or interruptions to the Works and the Services.

25 CERTAIN RIGHTS AND REMEDIES ON DEFAULT

- 25.1 Each of the Client's rights or remedies is without prejudice to any of the Client's other rights or remedies, whether or not under the Contract.
- 25.2 If the whole or any part of the Works and/or the Services are not carried out or performed in accordance with the Contract, then the Client shall be entitled to:
- 25.2.1 require the Contractor to forthwith commence to rectify the breach and/or take such other measures as the Client reasonably deems necessary and to diligently proceed and complete rectification and such measures as soon as possible, at no cost to the Client;
- 25.2.2 deduct from any payments due to the Contractor any costs, losses and expenses incurred by the Client which are attributable to the Contractor's breach or be paid them by the Contractor within ten (10) working days of written demand.; and/or
- 25.2.3 terminate the Contract under condition 29.3.

26 LIMITATION ON LIABILITY

- 26.1 Nothing in these Conditions shall limit or exclude either party's liability for:
- 26.1.1 death or personal injury caused by its acts or omissions (whether negligent or otherwise), or the acts or omissions (whether negligent or otherwise) of its employees, agents or sub-contractors;
- 26.1.2 fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or
- 26.1.3 any other liability for which it is illegal or unlawful for the either party to limit or exclude.
- 26.2 Subject to condition 26.1, the Client's total liability to the Contractor in respect of costs, claims, damages losses, expenses and demands arising under or in connection with the Contract, whether in contract, tort, breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall in no circumstances exceed the Price.
- 26.3 Subject to condition 26.1, the Contractor's total liability to the Client in respect of costs, claims, damages losses, expenses and demands arising under or in connection with the Contract, whether in contract, tort, breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall be as specified in the Purchase Order.

27 FORCE MAJEURE

- 27.1 Neither party shall be in breach of the Contract nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under it if such delay or failure result from a Force Majeure Event.
- 27.2 The Contractor shall use all reasonable endeavours to mitigate the effect of a Force Majeure Event on the performance of its obligations.
- 27.3 If a Force Majeure Event prevents, hinders or delays the Contractor's performance of its obligations for a continuous period of more than twenty (20) working days, The Client may terminate this Contract immediately by giving written notice to the Contractor.

28 SUSPENSION

28.1 The Client may (without prejudice to any rights or remedies the Client may have) suspend (in whole or in part) the supply by the Contractor of the Works and/or the Services by giving the Contractor written notice and may subsequently notify the Contractor that the Contractor shall (wholly or partially) resume the carrying out of the Works and the Services.

28.2 Subject to condition 28.3, within twenty (20) working days of notice of suspension, the Client shall pay to the Contractor any payments that have become due by the date of suspension plus a fair and reasonable proportion of the value of the Works and the Services that have been carried out since the last payment was due and the date of suspension.

28.2.1 If the suspension results from breach on the part of the Contractor the Client shall have no liability to pay the Contractor any amounts under condition 28.2, until the Client has established its costs and losses arising out of and in connection with such suspension. On establishing such costs and losses, the Client's only liability is to pay to the Contractor within twenty (20) working days of the notice of suspension, the amounts under condition 28.2 LESS such costs and losses. If such costs and losses exceed any amounts under condition 28.2, the Contractor shall pay the Client such excess within ten (10) working days of being notified of the Client's costs and losses.

29 TERMINATION AND CONSEQUENCE OF TERMINATION

29.1 The Client shall be entitled to terminate the Contract by giving notice to the Contractor at any time prior to commencement of the Works and/or the Services without incurring any liability to the Contractor.

29.2 The Client shall be entitled to terminate the Contract for any reason (other than for a reason set out in condition 29.3 to which the provisions of that condition apply) following commencement of the Works and/or the Services by giving not less than five (5) working days' notice in writing to the Contractor. Within twenty (20) working days of such termination the Client shall pay to the Contractor any payments that have become due at the date of termination plus a fair and reasonable proportion of the value of the Works and the Services that have been carried out since the last payment was due and the date of termination, to the extent that the Contractor has not already been paid for them.

29.3 The Client shall be entitled to terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Contractor at any time if:

29.3.1 the Contractor is in breach of any of its obligations and that breach cannot be remedied;

29.3.2 the Contractor is in breach of any of its obligations and where that breach can be remedied the Contractor has failed to remedy it and/or take such other measures as the Client reasonably deems necessary within fourteen ten (10) working days starting on the day after receipt of notice of the breach from the Client;

29.3.3 the Contractor commits more than one breach of any of its obligations and the cumulative effect of such breaches is that the Client reasonably believes that the Contractor will continue to deliver a substandard performance over the twenty (20) working day period immediately after the service of notice specified in condition 29.3.2;

29.3.4 the Contractor makes any voluntary arrangement with the Contractor's creditors or becomes subject to an administration order or goes into liquidation or bankruptcy or an encumbrancer takes possession or a receiver is appointed, of any of the Contractor's property or assets or is subject to an analogous event in a foreign territory or jurisdiction; and/or 29.3.5 the Client reasonably believes that any of the events mentioned above is about to occur and the Client notifies the Contractor accordingly.

29.4 On termination of the Contract for any reason in condition 29.3, the Client shall have no liability to pay the Contractor any payments that have become due at the date of termination or for the Works and the Services that have been carried out since the last payment was due and the date of termination, until the Client has established

29.4.1 its costs and losses arising out of and in connection with such termination; and

29.4.2 its additional costs in completing the Works and the Services itself or through a third party.

On establishing such costs and losses, the Client shall pay to the Contractor within twenty (20) working days any payments that have become due to the Contractor at the date of termination plus the value of the Works and the Services that have been carried out since the last payment was due and the date of termination, to the extent that the Contractor has not already been paid for them LESS the costs and losses referred to in condition 29.4.1 and 29.4.2. If such costs and losses exceed any payments that have become due to the Contractor at the date of termination and the value of the Works and the Services that have been carried out since the last payment was due and the date of termination, the Contractor shall pay the Client such excess within ten (10) working days of being notified of the Client's costs and losses.

29.5 The Contractor shall be entitled to terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Client if the Client has failed to pay to the Contractor an instalment of the Price in accordance with condition 19 within forty (40) working days of the Final Date for Payment of that instalment. On termination the Client shall pay to the Contractor within twenty (20) working days any payments that have become due to the Contractor at the date of termination plus the value of the Works and the Services that have been carried out since the last payment was due and the date of termination, to the extent that the Contractor has not already been paid for them.

29.6 Subject to condition 26, any termination of the Contract pursuant to this condition 29 shall be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies a party may be entitled to under the Contract or at law and shall not affect any accrued rights or liabilities of either party nor the coming into or continuance in force of any provision which is expressly or by implication intended to come into or continue in force on or after such termination.

29.7 On termination of the Contract for any reason, the Contractor shall immediately deliver to the Client all works, materials, goods, data, information and documentation relating to the Works and the Services and return to the Client all the Client's materials, goods, data, information and documentation. If the Contractor fails to do so, then the Client may enter the Contractor's premises and take possession of them. Until they have been returned or delivered, the Contractor shall be solely responsible for their safe keeping (including insurance and maintenance) and will not use them for any purpose not connected with this Contract.

30 AGENCY AND SUBCONTRACTING

30.1 Nothing in the Contract shall be construed as establishing the Contractor or any of the Contractor's Persons as the Client's employee. Nothing in these Conditions shall create a partnership, agency or joint venture between the Client and the Contractor.

- 30.2 The relationship between the Contractor and the Client shall not be deemed to be that of agent and principal. The Contractor shall not be entitled to procure any of the Works or the Services as an agent of the Client.
- 30.3 The Contractor shall not transfer, assign, charge, dispose of or sub-contract all or any part of the Contract without the consent of the Client. In any event, the Contractor shall not be relieved of the responsibility under the Contract for such parts of the Contract as are sub-contracted and the Contractor shall be responsible and liable for the acts, omissions or defaults of any Contractor's Persons or their employees, servants and agents, as fully as if they were the acts or defaults of the Contractor.
- 30.4 As a condition precedent to the Client providing its consent to the sub-contracting of all or any part of the Contract by the Contractor pursuant to condition 30.3, the Contractor shall first obtain the Client's approval of the Contractor's proposed form of sub-contract. Within five (5) days of receipt of a request from the Client, the Contractor shall provide the Client with signed versions of any and all sub-contracts entered into by the Contractor in connection with the Contract.
- 30.5 The Contractor shall use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that it and the Contractor's Persons employ only such personnel who are careful, suitably skilled and experienced. The Client may direct the Contractor to, within three (3) working days or immediately where there is a threat to health and safety, cease to employ, under any contract, any person employed by the Contractor or the Contractor's Persons who, in the reasonable opinion of the Client, misconducts himself or herself or is incompetent or negligent in the performance of their duties or obligations.
- 30.6 The parties agree that no contractual relationship is created between the Client and any of the Contractor's Persons.
- 30.7 The Contractor shall ensure that any sub-contract(s) entered into by the Contractor contains such provisions of these Conditions as should be made applicable to any such sub-contract(s).
- 31 GENERAL
- 31.1 The Contract is personal to the Contractor and the Contractor shall not transfer, assign, charge, dispose of or deal in any manner or purport to do the same with any of the Contractor's rights or beneficial interests under or in connection with the Contract without the Client's prior written consent.
- 31.2 The Client has the right to transfer, assign, charge, dispose of or deal in any manner or purport to do the same with any of the Client's rights or beneficial interests under or in connection with the Contract.
- 31.3 The Contract shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties in relation to the subject matter of the agreement and supersedes any previous agreements, representations and commitments, whether oral or in writing, between the parties concerning such subject matter.
- 31.4 Each party agrees that it shall have no remedies in respect of any representation or warranty that is not set out in the Contract and that its only liability in respect of those representations and warranties that are set out in the Contract shall be for breach of contract. Nothing in these Conditions shall limit or exclude either party's liability for fraud.
- 31.5 Should either party elect not to enforce any of the provisions of the Contract or to require performance by the other party (as the case may be) of any of the provisions hereof, it shall in no way be construed to be a waiver of such provisions or requirements in the future, nor in any way affect the validity of the Contract or any part thereof, and the parties reserve the right thereafter to enforce each and every provision of the Contract.
- 31.6 If any provision of these Conditions is held by any competent authority to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable in whole or in part the validity of the remainder shall not be affected.
- 31.7 Except as expressly provided (including in respect of indemnity), the parties do not intend any term of this Contract to create any rights or benefits to any other party other than the parties to the Contract or to be enforceable pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 but this does not affect any express right or remedy of any third party which exists or is available apart from the Act.
- 31.8 Reference to any statute or statutory provisions shall be deemed to include any statutory modifications or re-enactments thereof or any rules or regulations made there under or any enactment repealing and replacing the Act referred to.
- 31.9 Any notice to be given by either party to the other under these Conditions must be in writing and sent by pre-paid first class or other next working day delivery service, hand delivered or emailed to the other party for the attention of the person and at the postal or email address set out in the Purchase Order or such other postal or email address as may have been notified in writing for these purposes. This condition does not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action or, where applicable, any other method of dispute resolution.
- 31.10 Any notice referred to in condition 31.9 or communication shall be deemed to have been received:
- 31.10.1 if delivered by hand, at the time the notice is left at the postal address referred to in condition 31.9;
- 31.10.2 if sent by pre-paid first-class post or other next working day delivery service, at 9.00 am on the second working day after posting; or
- 31.10.3 if sent by email, at the time of transmission, or, if this time falls outside business hours in the place of receipt, when business hours (9.00am to 5.00pm on a working day) resume in the place of receipt.
- 31.11 All documentation required for the performance of this Contract shall be written in the English language, which is hereby designated as the governing language of this Contract.
- 31.12 Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa; words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine gender and vice versa; and references to persons shall include bodies of persons whether corporate or incorporate.
- 32 ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION
- 32.1 The Contractor shall:
- 32.1.1 comply with all applicable laws, statutes, regulations, and codes relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption including but not limited to the Bribery Act 2010 (Relevant Requirements);
- 32.1.2 not engage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute an offence under sections 1, 2 or 6 of the Bribery Act 2010 if such activity, practice or conduct had been carried out in the UK;
- 32.1.3 have and shall maintain in place throughout the term of this Contract its own policies and procedures, including but not limited to adequate procedures under the Bribery Act 2010, to ensure compliance with the Relevant Requirements, and condition 32.1.2, and will enforce them where appropriate; and
- 32.1.4 promptly report to the Client any request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage of any kind received by the Contractor in connection with the performance of this Contract.

32.2 The Contractor shall ensure that any person associated with the Contractor who is performing the Works or the Services in connection with this Contract does so only on the basis of a written contract which imposes on and secures from such person terms equivalent to those imposed on the Contractor in this condition (Relevant Terms). The Contractor shall be responsible for the observance and performance by such persons of the Relevant Terms and shall be directly liable to the Client for any breach by such persons of any of the Relevant Terms.

33 GOVERNING LAW, DISPUTES AND JURISDICTION

33.1 Any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with the Contract or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

33.2 Either party may refer a dispute arising under the Contract to adjudication at any time under Part I of the Scheme for Construction Contracts (England and Wales) Regulations, which Part shall take effect as if it was incorporated into this clause.

33.3 Notwithstanding condition 33.2, each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with the Contract or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).

34 SURVIVAL

34.1 Conditions 1, 2, 13, 14, 15,16,17,20, 21,24,26 and 29-34 both inclusive shall survive termination of the Contract.
